Discrimination = Treating people differently

Common Types of Protected Traits

- Disability
 - Age
 - Ancestry

- Intimidation or abusive behavior based on disability can create a hostile environment
- Look to Policy/Handbook

Title VI and Title VII

- Title VI – “Any program, activity receiving Federal financial assistance”
- Race, color, or national origin
- Contracts, grants, educational activities

Title VI and Title VII

- Title VII – “An unlawful employment practice for any employer...”
- Fail or refuse to hire, or discriminate, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin
- Limit, segregate, or classify employees that would deprive or limit employment opportunities based on...

What does “race” mean?

- Ancestry
 - Physical characteristics
 - Race-linked illness
 - Culture
 - Association
- Perception that someone belongs to a certain race
 - “Race-Plus”
 - Reverse race discrimination

Sex Discrimination and Harassment

Sexual Harassment Definitions under the New Title IX Regulations

When does a school have notice of a complaint?

Actual knowledge = notice of sexual harassment or allegations of sexual harassment to a recipient's:

- Title IX Coordinator, or
- Any official of the recipient who has authority to institute corrective measures on behalf of the recipient, or
- To any employee of an elementary or secondary school

34 C.F.R. § 106.30(a)

The School's Obligation

A recipient with actual knowledge of sexual harassment in an educational program or activity of the recipient against a person in the United States, must respond promptly in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent. A recipient is only deliberately indifferent if its response to sexual harassment is unreasonable in light of known circumstances.

New Definitions of Sexual Harassment under Title IX

Sexual harassment means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- Quid pro quo – An employee of the recipient conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the recipient on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct
- Hostile environment – Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the recipient's education program or activity; or
- Clery crimes – Sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking [Clery regulatory definition cites omitted]

Final Regulations Apply to Employees

- Recipients that are subject to both Title VII and Title IX must comply with both
- “Deliberate indifference” standard applies
 - Because Title IX recipients are “in the business of education”
 - “Marketplace of ideas”

Quid Pro Quo

- They do/won't do this, so...
- They will/won't put up with this, so...
- If you do/don't... I will/won't...

Quid Pro Quo

- May involve a power differential
- “Everyone knows that so-and-so...”
- Voluntary conduct between some may put observers in the position of believing that something sexual is necessary to get something favorable

Hostile Environment – What does this look like?

Be aware of things that are not elements:

- “Happened more than once”
- “Parties weren’t dating at the time”
- “Must involve two people of compatible sexual orientations”
- “Must occur on school property”  (but remember state law restrictions)
- “Must have bad intent”

Jurisdictionally Important

From 34 C.F.R. § 106.44:

“If the conduct alleged in the formal complaint would not constitute sexual harassment... even if proved, did not occur in the recipient’s education program or activity, or did not occur against a person in the United States, then the recipient must dismiss the formal complaint with regard to that conduct for purposes of sexual harassment under Title IX or this part; such a dismissal does not preclude action under another provision of the recipient’s code of conduct.”

Hypothetical #1

- Chuck asks Mary Sue out on a date
- Mary Sue says no

Hypothetical #1

- The transportation supervisor warns them both informally not to discuss personal matters on the radio

Hypothetical #1

- The transportation supervisor writes both of them up for starting their routes late even though Mary Sue tells the supervisor what happened

Hypothetical #2

- Mr. Joe is a well-loved teacher
- He is always commenting on how pretty his female students look
- Josie, a student, is his helper and comes to his room during fourth period class to grade papers
- Josie's mother brings you text messages that Mr. Joe has been sending to Josie (not sexual in nature)

Hypothetical #3

- One of your newer teachers is a person of color
- She has struggled with communicating with parents, disciplining students appropriately, classroom management, and curriculum
- She is claiming that her non-renewal is due to race discrimination

Hypothetical #4

- A student approaches a trusted teacher after class and mentions that she was at a party last Friday night
- The student tells the teacher she was kissing another student at the party who happens in to be in this class and then he reached down her pants and touched her in a way that made her uncomfortable after she told him to stop
- The student asks the teacher not to tell anyone, saying she “doesn’t want to make a big deal out of it”

Hypothetical #5

- You're a custodian in the school district
- While working in the boys' locker room one evening, you overhear a student complaining to his friend about the annual "hazing ritual" that happens in the locker room
- The student tells his friends that he's "dreading the towel on his privates..."

- Child Abuse
- Felonies

Retaliation

Section added to new Title IX regs

Retaliation defined in part: “No recipient or other person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX or this part, or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this part...”

34 C.F.R. § 106.71

Retaliation

- Report this immediately to the Title IX Coordinator
- Is there already a no-contact order and, if not, do you want one?
- Adverse action against an individual
- Abuse, violence, threats, and intimidation
- More than just someone expressing their opinion

District Obligations

- Update district policies
 - Address complainant and provide supportive measures

- Recognize a potential Title IX violation
- Report any potential Title IX violation to the Title IX Coordinator the same day you receive notice of it
- Review your district's anti-discrimination and anti-harassment policies as soon as they are updated

How do you make a report on your own behalf?

- Promptly report incidents of unlawful discrimination and/or retaliation to your District's Title IX Coordinator so that the Board may address the conduct
- Remember – retaliation is prohibited

How do you make a report on your own behalf?

- The Title IX Coordinator can describe for you the difference between formal and informal complaints, discuss the criminal reporting process, determine appropriate supportive measures, and identify other available resources
- You can then choose how you wish to proceed (i.e., a formal or informal resolution process)

How do you make a report on your own behalf?

- If you make a report, the Title IX Coordinator should discuss supportive measures with you
- May include counseling, extensions of deadlines, modifications of work or class schedules, escort services, mutual no-contact orders, changes in work locations, leaves of absence, increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the campus, and other similar measures
